

DON WALLACE, JIL

Member, 140 Advisory Committee, National Legal Center for the Public Interest; chairman, Private International Law Coordinating Committee, Section of International Law and Practice, American Bar Association; Member, Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law; Chief United States delegate to UNCITRAL on industrial works contracts, procurement law and BOT/privately financed infrastructure; Vice President, Shaybani Society of International Law; Arbitrator; Member Panel of Arbitrators of Cairo Regional Center for international Commercial Arbitration; Member, Board of Directors, Institute of Investment and Arbitration, Cairo; Member, American Law Institute, Member, Board of Governors, Republican National Lawyers Association; Member, Citizens for the Constitution(drafting committee); Member, Board of Directors, Bulgarian American Society; Member, Advisory Board, Central and Eastern European Law Initiative (CEELI); Member, Steering Committee for Law, National Association of Scholars; Member, Board of Directors, Azerbaijan-American Educational, Cultural and Economic-Center; Emeritus Member, Board of Directors, International Development Law Institute, Rome; on roster of panelists of World Trade Organization (WTO) Dispute Settlement Body; Correspondent, UNIDROIT, and Vice President, Board of Governors, UNIDROIT Foundation, Rome.

Formerly- private practice in New York City, Deputy Assistant General Counsel, Regional Legal Advisor Middle East, Acting Head Private Enterprise, Alliance for Progress, and Consultant, AID; Chairman, Section of International Law and Practice, and Member of House of Delegates, American Bar Association; Chairman, Advisory Committee on Technology and World Trade, Office of Technology Assessment, United States Congress; Member, United States Delegation, UX Conference on State Succession in Respect of Treaties; Member, Research Council, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Georgetown University; Member, International Investment Committee, U.S. Chamber of Commerce; Member, Board of Trustees, and Secretary, the Media.

B.A. Yale, 1953 (high honors); I.L.B. Harvard, 1957 (cum laude); Fulbright Fellow, Turkey, 1967; Fellow, St. Antony's College, Oxford, 1973-74; Eisenhower Exchange Fellow, 1976.

Currently: Chairman, International Law Institute and Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center; Counsel, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius.

Courses Taught: Public International Law; International Business and Economic Law; GATT/WTO; International Monetary, Finance and Investment Law; International and Comparative Procurement Law; Global Infrastructure Projects; Constitutional Aspects of Foreign Affairs, Conservatism in Law and Politics in America; Property