

Professional Career

Dr. Sarie-Eldin has been in practice since 1987. He is a Partner at one of the largest legal firms in the Middle East "Shalakany law Office". He is the Head of Investment Banking Unit. His specialization includes Privatization and Regulatory Aspects , Joint Ventures, Financing, Construction Contracts Project finance, BOOT including Power Plants Projects, Water Supply and Waste Water Projects, Oil and Gas and Capital Market Transactions (e.g. Private Placement, GDRs, ADR and Bond Issues).

Dr. Sarie-Eldin is a lecturer of Commercial and Maritime Law at Cairo University since 1995 . He was appointed as an assistant in 1988. His research and teaching, currently, entails: Commercial Law; Banking Law; Company Law, and Arbitration.

Dr. Sarie-Eldin, at the same time, undertakes the responsibility to teach as well at the English Departments of Faculty of Law - Cairo University. He is also a visiting lecturer at University of London, Center of Commercial Law Studies. Dr. Sarie-Eldin is assisting in teaching a course on Financing & Investment Legal Frameworks in Emerging Economics at Queen Mary College and London School of Economics.